THE TRUE HISTORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

PART 2

The Master Aetherius has made certain revelations about Atlantis, or the Atlantean civilisation as a whole in various Transmissions, which reveal a lot about their whole approach to science and religion. He was definitely one of "The Gods from the Sky", Who came to Earth to help and instruct the priests from Atlantis. They had crystal and radionic technology which our scientists today have not yet tapped! The Atlanteans constructed giant crystalline structures which were specially designed to store solar energy and other cosmic rays to be used at a later date. This energy could be used for healing but was undoubtedly used to power up their whole infrastructure and flying craft. The scientists who were allowed to have access to the technology had to be initiates of a certain standing and demonstrate a certain degree of mental control in order to tap the energy locked in the giant crystal structures. The Master Aetherius stated that the energies had to be "unscrambled" so that they were in a usable form, depending on which frequency was required.

In those days, there was also an advanced civilisation in India, known as the great empire of Rama which also had an advanced Spiritual culture and technology. They had flying craft, referred to as vimanas and their engineers had to be specially trained initiates, follow a strict Ayurvedic diet and demonstrate a specific mental capacity and knowledge of Mantras and mystical practices before they were given access to the technology. The vimanas of ancient India were empowered by manipulation of the Pranas through the use of different mirrors and the full blueprint for building various types of vimanas was produced in the ancient text known as the "Vimanika Shastra", which was translated into English as recently as 1973.

In those days, the Rama Empire was governed by the Priest-Kings, who in the tradition of the ancient Rishis, were wise men, advanced Yogis with what we would call today superhuman powers. They lived a peaceful existence. Their influence spread far and wide right over to ancient China in the East, and West as far as South America. An ancient unknown script was discovered in both Nazca, Peru and Mohenjo Daro in Northern India! There are also images of cigar shaped craft on ancient pieces of pottery at Nazca. Both Atlantis and Rama had antigravity technology and would have had cultural exchanges, just as we do today.

But, as had been foreseen by The Sanat Kumara, the Atlantean civilisation as a whole went the way of the Lemurian civilisation before it. War broke out and this was truly devastating. It is not clear who started it, but all the ancient records suggest that the aggressors came from the West. The Mahabharata tells of the conquest of Northern India by Aryan invaders from the North, which it would be in relation to the geographical position of India. Plato went on record to say that "the Atlanteans aggressed wantonly against the whole of Europe and Asia". What is also evident is that they had a terrible armoury of weapons which have been vividly described in several ancient texts. These can only be likened to atomic weapons. The Theogony from ancient Greece describes "the flashing glare of the thunderstone, its lightning blinded their eyes...", and "through the fire from the Monster and the scorching winds and blazing Thunderbolt, the whole Earth seethed...".

The ancient Sumerian text entitled "The Lamentation over the destruction of Ur", tells of a terrible weapon that devastated many cities and the land of ancient Mesopotamia:

"...In the West it was spawned...the evil wind covered the land as a cloak, spread over it like a sheet....was carried to Sumer by a great wind which speeds high above. They spread awesome rays towards the four points of earth, scorching everything like fire...a dense cloud that brings gloom..." Seven deadly missiles were launched from "the Plain of No Pity". This is the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah in the Bible. Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of vapour ~ not salt. This was probably a mistranslation from ancient Sumerian into Hebrew.

A great war is also described in the two Indian epics, the Mahabharata and the Ramayana and it is quite clear that they too unleashed atomic weapons against their enemies with graphic descriptions. They talk of "an iron thunderbolt, a gigantic messenger of death. An incandescent column of smoke and flame, as bright as ten thousand suns, rose with all its splendour..." An entire race was wiped out. " Their corpses were so badly burned as to be unrecognisable. Pottery broke without apparent cause. Hair and nails fell out. The earth shook, scorched by the terrible violent heat of this weapon..."

When these ancient Indian epics were first translated in the 19th century from the Sanskrit for study purposes and later into English, scholars could not comprehend what was being described. They simply ignored the fanciful weapons that were used in ancient warfare but nevertheless decided to stay true to the original texts as they were perceived to be descriptions of battles fought by “the Gods”. After the first atomic bombs were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, these descriptions of the fallout from the terrible weaponry started to make sense. Robert Oppenheimer, regarded as the father of the atomic bomb, was in fact a Sanskrit scholar and after the detonation of the first experimental atomic bomb in the Nevada Desert, quoted from the Bhagavadgita : “I am become death, the destroyer of worlds”. He was later asked in a television interview whether it was the first atomic bomb ever detonated. He replied : “well yes, in modern history”. He was obviously of the belief that it had been done before in ancient times.

There is evidence of ancient atomic warfare and the legacy is still with us today. Other ancient Indian texts refer to the nature of the atom as being like a miniature solar system and that it could be split. Archaeologists have come across ancient ruins in India which point to atomic devastation in the distant past. Excavations at Mohenjo-Daro and Harappa revealed skeletons strewn all over the cities at street level as if they had been overwhelmed by some sudden calamity, rather like the excavations at Pompeii when they were first discovered in the 18th century. The skeletons in India were thousands of years old and showed no sign of decay or physical injury, such as spear wounds. Animals wouldn’t go near the sites. Some skeletons were found to have radiation levels fifty times higher than normal ! Charred remains of clay pots were also found fused together as though they had been subjected to intense heat.

After the detonation of the experimental atomic bombs in the Nevada Desert, there were areas of fused green glass on the desert floor caused by the intense heat. In 1947, excavations were made in Iraq for research purposes into ancient Sumeria. A vertical shaft was drilled down through the various strata. First, they found remains of ancient Chaldea along with various artefacts of that period. As they drilled deeper, archaeologists excavated the remains of small villages and primitive farming tools. They then drilled through a fourteen foot layer of clay indicating prolonged flooding and below that was a layer of fused glass, like the layer of glass at Alamogordo, New Mexico, resulting from the first experimental atomic bomb! These areas of fused glass are found right across Asia, through to Mongolia. The pale green glass found in the Libyan Desert is considered by “experts” to be the result of meteoric impact at some time in the past. However, there are no craters or fragments ~ just sheets of glass exposed at surface level.

The “Golden Age” of the Atlantean civilisation was long gone. Areas of the globe were obliterated by devastating atomic warfare. Prior to the unleashing of these terrible weapons, The Cosmic Masters must have been dismayed by what was about to happen and, according to our Teachings, five giant spacecraft were despatched to Earth in order to evacuate those who were deserving. These were called the “Cities of Shan”. In the Mahabharata, there is a description of giant spacecraft, like flying cities, circling the planet, releasing waves of smaller craft in a huge rescue operation. The evil factions were left to pursue their violent and devastating warfare which had a truly catastrophic outcome. The continent of Atlantis, which straddled the mid Atlantic ridge, was swallowed up in the Atlantic Ocean in a series of devastating earthquakes and volcanic eruptions and, as stated by Plato, “in a single day and night of rain, all your warlike men in a body sank into the earth....and the island of Atlantis, in like manner, was sunk beneath the sea”. Plato ,here, is referring to the last remnant of the once great continent in that part of the world, which was itself part of an advanced global civilisation when, at its height, shared its technical and cultural achievements with other nations, as we do today.

There were survivors, and some of the Atlantean outposts, like pre-Dynastic Egypt and the early Mayan civilisations kept records and memories of this once mighty empire, which in its heyday, communed with the Gods. The nuclear holocaust damaged the Earth’s crust and caused faultlines to open up causing a mighty cataclysm. The Earth moved on its axis and changed its inclination and the great deluge which ensued caused further devastation. This is the great flood referred to in the Bible. Nearly three hundred cultures around the world have ancient records of a great universal flood. Noah is one of several “chosen” ones to be pre-warned of the great deluge to come. There is overwhelming evidence of a sudden global cataclysm rather than a gradual change. Scientists agree that the Poles were once temperate zones. The science of plate tectonics has replaced the concept of continental drift whereby geological change would occur over long periods of time. This explains sudden movements and shifts of the Earth’s crust.

Analysis of sediments at the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean show that volcanic deposits were formed above water many thousands of years ago. Ancient archaeological ruins are being discovered all the time. Photographs have been taken of sunken cities in the depths of the ocean, including pyramids! Several reports have been made of two huge pyramids made of a glass-like substance within the Bermuda Triangle at a depth of 6000 feet which are probably still functioning. They were identified as such by oceanographer Dr. Verlag Meyer with the help of sonar equipment. They are three times the size of the Pyramid of Cheops and western scholars think they were built on dry land. They are not understood by modern Egyptologists and were never designed to be used as tombs. They were a mystery even in the days of the known pharaohs but later, inferior copies of these huge monolithic structures have not stood the test of time and have disintegrated.

The first wave of survivors from Atlantis went over to Egypt and the Yucatan and brought knowledge of their science with them. The Sphinx is one of the oldest monuments of the ancient world and shows signs of having been submerged under water for a long period of time. Archaeologists are starting to estimate its age as being at least 10,000 years old, which already pushes back the boundaries of known history. It could be even more ancient than that. There are many other signs, like depictions of now extinct animals which obviously coexisted with earlier civilisations. No-one can explain the sudden appearance of Cro-Magnon man some 30,000 years, apparently from nowhere, in Western Europe, the Middle East and the Eastern Seaboard of America. He was clearly a highly intelligent human being with a superior brain capacity even to our own.

After the terrible cataclysm, the Earth changed in many ways, not just geographically. Our position in the Solar System was different to the days of Atlantis. We are now closer to the Sun and the ionosphere has been greatly intensified, just as it had to happen after the fall of Lemuria. We are more “protected” from solar radiation but on a Spiritual level, the new emerging race of humans would find it harder to draw down higher inspiration. This makes Spiritual evolution more difficult and the present civilisation is more embedded in materialism. Access to Spiritual knowledge is still available but we have to work harder to get results. Is this not the timeless message of The Cosmic Masters: “From Freewill to Freedom?” One cannot destroy a Planet and two civilisations and get away with it. They are not allowed, by Karmic Law, to come down openly among us as They did in the days of Lemuria and Atlantis. Even so, we have not been left entirely alone. The great Avatars have still walked amongst us, but Their presence on Earth has been veiled in mystery and They have chosen to take karma on our behalf to make this possible. We have come full circle, but with greater limitation.

Once the programme of nuclear testing began in the 1950s, it alerted The Cosmic Hierarchy which started monitoring the activities of the various nuclear powers. Many early Cosmic Transmissions were warning us to curb this experimentation because of the hidden dangers of nuclear fallout apart from the terrible atrocity that would be committed if such devices were used in war. On March 1st, 1954, the United States tested a thermonuclear device with the added element lithium, in the Bikini Atoll, in the Marshall Islands, with very frightening developments. It was detonated in the atmosphere. Within one second, it formed a fireball four and a half miles across and left a crater over 6000 feet deep after what appeared to be an unstoppable chain reaction. It was one thousand times more powerful than the bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The US Government didn't pursue this line of development after such a potential disaster. The Master Aetherius gave us a stark warning, in the Cosmic Transmission entitled "The Appeal". He stated: "Do not let it happen again, for if it does, the fault lines existing within the screen of your frail little Earth will open and indeed great calamity will befall you". He also warned us that we were now using the same combination of elements that reduced a whole Planet to tens of thousands of small rocks! All that remained of that world is the Asteroid Belt. We were one step away from the Maldek apocalypse!

We have now come full circle. We are at a crossroad in our evolution. We are poised to make the same mistakes we have made three times in the past or, change and go forward into the New Age of peace and enlightenment. If we ignore our history then we are condemned to repeat it. This is why it is essential for us to know our true history, which The Cosmic Masters have decided to reveal to us at this time. There are great changes which are due to take place upon the Earth. According to The Master Aetherius in "This is the Hour of Truth", She, the Logos, was approached by the Lords, just after the fall of Atlantis to accept Her Initiation. She refused to accept it at that time because She took pity upon us, knowing that we "would be scattered to the winds", "thrown into an etheric vortex and end up on some obscure realm". God only knows how long it would take us to evolve out of such a bleak situation! However, the Karmic moment has arrived for The Mother Earth to accept this long overdue Initiation and we have two choices: go forward with the Great Change or start our history all over again on another younger world in this Solar System.

We are not alone. We have the most fantastic opportunities to work in conjunction with the greatest Beings in our Solar System and send streams of light into the mindbelt of Earth. We have all the Spiritual tools at our disposal to prepare ourselves for the New Age thanks to the superb legacy of our Master. If the whole population of Earth tuned into Satellite No.3, we would have the real heaven that everyone dreams about. This holy Vessel of Light has travelled all over the Galaxy, helping the inhabitants of other worlds to change the conditions upon which they lived. According to The Master Aetherius, this self-same Vessel approached the people of Maldek all those millions of years ago to offer the Spiritual Power that we are offered today – and they officially refused it. The dark forces took over the Planet and completely obliterated it. However this time we will not be allowed to destroy our Planet. We cannot fail again. We have all the know-how we need to open up our consciousness to Higher Truth, but do we have the wisdom? In our culture, science and religion are completely separate. The Master Jesus sums it up well when He says that "The Age which is breaking now, brings with it great possibilities and is the Age of Science. Science, by itself, is like the soulless wanderer of the realms of night. Yet a warmth will come out of Love, to fashion it into a tool, so that it becometh as a wise man, finding his home". We have to learn to marry the two again, as they did in Atlantis, in its heyday, and Lemuria before that, at its height. The Master Aetherius, in His superb manner, expresses succinctly the problems with our educational system, in this following Extract in an early Transmission:

"The academic education of Terra is really useless – it teaches you a few facts and figures, but it does not teach you the whence, why and whether of your existence. Surely this is more important than learning the constituents of Uranium 235? Am I not right, am I not correct in every way? Then help to alter it by going ahead and teaching people, helping people to get this type of feeling which will eventually have its repercussions and reactions.

These reactions will be the starting of schools run by the right masters. Not men who have passed a lot of academic examinations but men of sound ability, men of great spirituality and great wisdom. What good is knowledge without wisdom? The Atlanteans had it, and what has happened to them? The Lemurians had it – they had knowledge but only a few people had wisdom, and what has happened? The thing you see spinning around Saturn at present – people on there had great knowledge but little wisdom! What is the use – what is the good of it? Surely it is better to have the wisdom of a squirrel that prepares itself for the winter, than the knowledge of certain of your politicians! Am I not right? We want to try to spread this teaching, this attitude, this outlook on life. It is nothing new - I am merely wrapping it up in a more modern dress. There is nothing new – how can there be? If there is one thing new, then the Creator, in the beginning, must have made that mistake, and all creation must fall flat, because of that one mistake. The only thing that keeps creation in its state of being, is the fact that, in the beginning, it was all here and there was no mistake..."

The Master Aetherius also tells us that Satellite No.3 approached another Planet in the Milky Way which was almost as near to self destruction as Maldek, but they listened to Beings Who were wiser than them and in less than fifty years they had completely transformed conditions upon their own world. It is not beyond our capabilities to achieve the same thing. The prophecy made by The Sanat Kumara is a message of hope. Our fate is not set in stone. We too can change conditions upon our beautiful world and then will the Gods truly walk among us...
