

Prayer for the Victims of Wildfires in Los Angeles

Oh Divine Creator
That which is Behind and Within all Life
We offer our heartfelt prayers
For all the victims of the devastating damage
From the wildfires in Los Angeles
May they be given hope, faith and feel
The Power of Your Infinite Love.

We pray that Your Infinite Healing Power
May flow to all the firefighters
And other front-line workers.
May Your Love flow now to all the injured and other victims of the firestorm.
May they all be strengthened,
Protected and Healed.

Oh Mighty Brahma
We offer our humble prayers to
The Devic kingdom in Los Angeles.
May Your Love flow through us now
Helping them in their tireless work
To bring harmony and beauty
To this area of our world.

Oh wondrous God
We thank You for allowing us
To be instruments
For Your Great and Loving Power
And for this opportunity to be of Service.
May Thy will be done.
